Top Internet Album Sales reflects physical albums ordered through Internet merchants, based on data collected by Nielsen SoundScan. Unlike most Billboard album charts, catalog titles are included on the Internet and Soundtrack charts. ● Albums with the greatest sales gain this week. ● Recording Industry Assn. of America (RIAA) certification for net shipment of 500,000 album units (Gold). ▲ RIAA certification for net shipment of 1 million units (Platinum). ◆ RIAA certification for net shipment of 10 million units (Diamond). Numerical following Platinum or Diamond symbol indicates album's multi-platinum level. For boxed sets, and double albums with a running time of 100 minutes or more, the RIAA multiplies shipments by the number of discs and/or tapes. RIAA Latin awards: ○ Certification for net shipment of 100,000 units (Oro.) △ Certification of 200,000 units (Platino). △² Certification of 400,000 units (Multi-Platino). * Asterisk indicates vinyl available. Sales 'Now!' And Then system," which opened at No. 9 with 91,500 copies in 1999.

This issue boasts the largest number of new goods atop the chart since the issue dated June 28, when six albums entered the top 10.

With this being the fourth time in 2003 that five or more titles have bowed inside the top 10, the chart may be headed for a record. There were five weeks in 2001 when The Billboard 200 had five or more new entries in the top 10, a record for the SoundScan era and probably for the chart's history.

LESS 'NOW' THAN BEFORE: The latest episode of the "Now That's

What I Call Music!" series still fields big hits from big names, but the opener for "Now! 13" is the smallest first week the line has seen since 1999, when "Now! 2" also opened at 171,000 copies—and, to put a finer point on it, that one started with about 100 units more than this one.

The previous outing, "Now! 12," started at No. 3 on 256,000 copies in the issue dated April 12.

ROOTS THAT SPRAWL: The re-entry at No. 155 on last issue's Billboard 200 and the subsequent jump to No. 107 by Alison Krauss & Union Station comes thanks to the marketing that came with the July 15 release of her group's DVD-Video.

National advertising on CMT is one of the planks that helps Krauss' "Live" win the Pacesetter on the big chart (up 49%) and the Greatest Gainer on Top Country Albums. The companion "Live" DVD entered Top Music Videos last week at No. 7.

Another Rounder album, "The Three Pickers" by Earl Scruggs, Doc Watson and Ricky Scaggs, picked up steam even before two big market drivers took place, earning the Pacesetter on the country list (36-28) while entering the big chart at No. 190 (up 62%).

Expect more juice for "Pickers" next issue, thanks to a public TV special that began airing July 29. A long "All Things Considered" segment on NPR will deliver another spike in August.

SHOUT IT OUT LOUD: The new live double-CD from Kiss—recorded with an orchestra, no less—scores the veteran band's best sales week since 1998, while some younger rock acts also kick up their heels.

"Symphony: Alive IV" opens at No. 18 with 41,000 copies, the best Kiss showing since "Psycho-Circus" began at No. 3 in 1998 with 109,500. Last year, a hits set peaked at No. 52, while the band's boxed set entered at No. 128 in 2001.

Thrice sets up shop at No. 16 (47,500), giving the band its first ink on The Billboard 200. An earlier album peaked at No. 20 on Heatseekers.

A launch at No. 27 is the highest Billboard 200 rank ever for Eve 6, but its opening total, 34,000, is not its best Nielsen SoundScan week.

Its last album sold 5,000 more when it began at No. 34 in 2000, while its self-titled album did 88,000 in Christmas week 1998.

RIM SHOTS: A fast start for the new Christina Aguilera track (72-54 on Hot 100 Airplay) helps her album win The Billboard 200's Greatest Gainer (41-31, up 13%)... With a second-week drop of less than 40%, the P. Diddy-produced "Bad Boys II" soundtrack easily retains the top rung on both The Billboard 200 and Top R&B/Hip-Hop Albums. It has a good shot to lead both charts again next week... Of the 7,000-copy sum that brings the multi-act "Worship Together: Be Glorified" back on the big chart at No. 143, 83% of those sales come from direct-to-consumer marketing. The other "Worship Together" album (No. 68), which won two recent Pacesetter awards, has also seen most of its sales from direct marketing.
